The Townhall of the City of Naarden was built in 1601. Naarden is a “Vestingsstad” (Fortified City). The perimeter walls of the fortifications have been completely restored and provide a walkway, from which the City can be seen from all angles. More on the city of Naarden on pages 24-25.

President's Report & In Memoriam

Beste medelanders.

It was great to see so many of you during the “Konings Dag” celebration, which was held during the Maas and Waal Borrel.

It was good to see so many new faces, who came over for a bite to eat before heading down to Fremantle for the “Konings Dag Event” that was organized by Australian Dutch Business Community.

The kids were the big winners on the day, as they were able to make some extra cash by selling their unwanted toys. Great effort by everyone involved.

Although there was a bit of a wait in the kitchen, (as we had approx. 180 people in the hall) the Boerenkool, NasiGoreng, Frikandellen and Bitterballen were a sure hit.

Now on a more serious note, please ensure you have forwarded your payment for your 2018 Membership. With our upcoming discounted events, we don't want you to miss out on these.

With the AGM coming up in September, I am always looking to reinforce our Committee with new blood.

If you are interested, or would like any information, please contact me direct. Or if you can spare some time to assist during any of the upcoming events, or have some ideas for new events, that would be appreciated as well. See you all soon.

Groeten,

Eric van Waaijenburg.
President.

In Memoriam John Aufdemkampe.

After a long fight with cancer, our dear Member John

Aufdemkampe passed away on Saturday 12th May.

He passed away at home, with his children and grandchildren by his side.

John was a “rough diamond”, a real “Mokummer” and loved his soccer and the Dutch Singers.

He loved and lived for the Choir.

During the last few weeks, when his health was deteriorating, we rehearsed at his daughter's place, so he could still be with us.

He told the Choir a few weeks ago, that he did not have much longer to live, not to wear black at his funeral and have a party to celebrate his life. So the Choir decided to give him a “Wake party” on Saturday the 5th of May.

John loved it, cut his cake and had a good time with his Family, Soccer friends and of course the Choir.

We sang his chosen songs for him and he even sang the solo in “Geef mij maar Amsterdam.”

John often was our Soloist in the Choir, specially he songs:

“Tulpen uit Amsterdam” and “Geef mij maar Amsterdam” and not to forget his beautiful Dutch Christmas songs, which he always sung in his usual style and with gusto.

John has been a member of our Choir for more than 15 years and hardly ever missed a rehearsal or Concert. He was always there to set up the hall and lend a hand where needed.

The Choir will sadly miss John with his rough humour and good temper.

We all admired him for his strength in his battle with cancer.

Dear John - Rest in Peace.
Gerry.

(John will not only be missed by the Choir, but also by the hundreds of our Members, who he has entertained as a soloist during the 15 years he sang in the Choir. Editor)

John, singing one of his famous ballads.

Stroganoff-Gehakt Schotel.

Hoofdgerecht – 4 tot 5 personen – 40 minuten + 40 minuten in de oven

De ingrediëntenlijst van dit gerecht mag dan misschien lang zijn, de meeste spullen (op de groenten en het gehakt na) heb je waarschijnlijk standaard in je kast liggen. Daarnaast durf ik te wedden dat deze stroganoff-gehaktschotel, na het proeven direct tot één van je favorieten behoort. Hij is echt ontzettend lekker!

Ingrediënten.

- ..# 1,5 kilo aardappels, geschild.
  - ..# Melk.
  - ..# Roomboter.
  - ..# 2 uien, gepeld en in ringen.
  - ..# 2 tenen knoflook, gepeld en fijnggehakt.
  - ..# 3 paprika's, in repen gesneden.
  - ..# 250 g champignons, in plakjes gesneden.
  - ..# 1 el paprikapoeder.
  - ..# 1 blikje tomatenpuree.
  - ..# 1 runderbouillonblokje.
  - ..# 500 g rundergehakt.
  - ..# 2 el crème fraîche.
  - ..# Worcestersaus.
  - ..# Tabasco.
  - ..# 75 g geraspte kaas.
  - ..# Olie om in te bakken.
- Eventueel scheutje Vodka.

Verder nodig.

Een Ovenschaal.

Bereiding.

Verhit een grote koekenpan of braadpan met wat olie en bak de ui, knoflook, paprika's en champignons op middelhoog vuur, totdat ze zacht zijn. Voeg de paprikapoeder en tomatenpuree toe en bak even mee.

Verkruimel het bouillonblokje boven de pan en voeg het gehakt toe. Roer het gehakt met een vork goed rul. Blus het gehaktmengsel eventueel af met een scheut Vodka, laat inkoken en voeg dan 100 ml water toe.

Zet het vuur weer laag en laat 15 minuten zachtjes pruttelen, of totdat de saus is ingedikt.

Roer de laatste 5 minuten van de kooktijd de crème fraîche door het gehakt. Proef de saus en breng indien nodig verder op smaak met wat Worcestersaus en tabascosaus.

Kook ondertussen de aardappels gaar en giet ze af. Stamp ze fijn en roer de puree glad met wat melk en een klont roomboter.

De puree moet niet te dik zijn, anders kun je hem zometeen moeilijk uitstrijken. Breng goed op smaak met zout en peper.

Verwarm de oven voor op 200 graden. Vet de ovenschaal in. Verdeel het gehaktmengsel over de ovenschaal en dek af met de aardappelpuree. Bestrooi met de geraspte kaas.

Bak de ovenschotel circa 30 tot 40 minuten in de oven, of totdat de bovenkant goudbruin is.

Laat de schotel voor serveren iets afkoelen.

Enjoy!

(Uit Keuken Liefde)

Stuff Dutch People Like

"Stuff Dutch People Like" is a column written by an Australian expatriate living in the Netherlands.

This amusing column observes the Dutch in their everyday life. We hope that you enjoy reading "Stuff Dutch People Like" as much as we do. The blog is available via the internet.

Dairy.

Dutch people like milk products, a lot. Even if you know very little about Dutch people or have just arrived in the Netherlands, you will soon observe the Dutch's predilection for dairy.

Need proof of their penchant? Just look at the height of 'em! The Dutch tower amongst the world's tallest of folks. Correction; the tallest people in the world.

The average adult in the Netherlands is 6 feet 1 inch (1.85 m). But wait, there's more. Dutch people's height appears to be contagious;

Immigrants living in the Netherlands are taller, on average, than their racial groups in their countries of origin. Wonder why? The love of all-things-dairy of course!

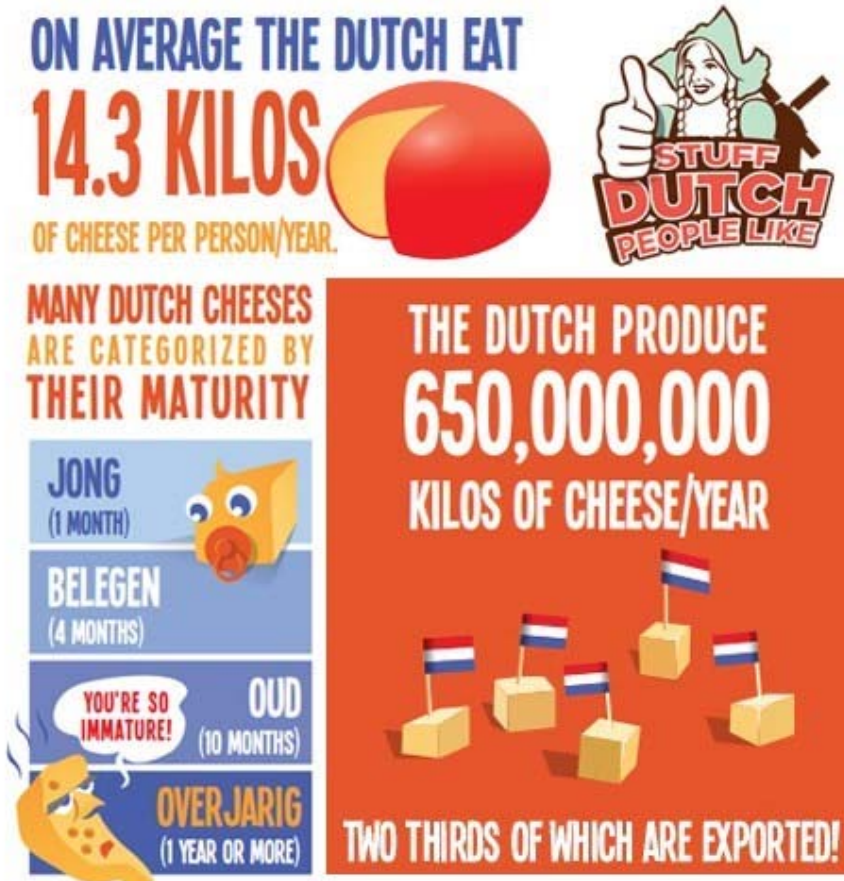

In North America, milk is primarily child's play. Step into any Dutch corporate lunchroom and you will be confronted by rows of Dutch men, in suits, happily slurping cartons of milk like it was going out of style! (I thought it already had?)

It is important to note that not all milk in the lowlands is created equal: "Karnemelk", the Dutch answer to Buttermilk, is by far the most popular of milky varieties. SDPL TIP: "Trying to blend in with the locals? Pair a simple cheese sandwich with a carton of Karnemelk and you are now consuming the nation's most popular luncheon meal! An added bonus, you might just sprout an extra few inches!"

After all, as the popular Dutch television advertisements proclaim: "Melk Moet" (milk is a must)!

The King's Maas & Waal Borrel Night

Maas & Waal Borrel Night.

On Friday the 27th of April Neerlandia held its monthly Maas and Waal Borrel Night. But this day was a very special one as it coincided with the birthday of our King "Willem-Alexander". About 180 Members and Guests attended this evening and the sheer numbers created a very friendly and "gezellige" atmosphere. Add to this the Children's "Vrijmarkt", that with the colourful display of many blankets on the dance floor, was pretty sight to see. The way the Children presented their surplus toys and games was excellent. A pity that there were not too many other Children present, to snap up some bargains and it was left to the Opa's and Oma's to buy them for their Children or Grand-Children. The Kitchen did a roaring trade, with the queue waiting to place food orders at one stage reaching outside the front door. And kitchen staff were still running around delivering food at 8.30pm.

Dress up in Orange was asked for. This lovely girl Isa-Bo Haanskorf had my vote for Queen of the Ball.

A very successful event indeed.
Pieter L. (L.M.)

Karin, invites everyone to buy some toys, books etc. from the "Vrijmarkt" for their Children or Grand-Children.

We are not cueing up to get into the Club, but merely to place an order for Dinner or Snacks from the Kitchen.

Neerlandia Seniors' Club

Welcome to the Neerlandia Seniors' Club page.

It was very sad to see that 2 of our long-time Members, Eddy Michielsen and Ferdi Klesch passed away recently. Our thoughts are with their families.

John Gloudie turned 94 and in his honour, a song by an 94 year old Scotchman, was played on an old "His Masters Voice" gramophone, as shown in the right hand top photo. On the 10th of May we celebrated Mothers Day for all the ladies and they were all presented with a beautiful Cyclamen in a pot, which will keep for many years to come. You can see some of them also in the right hand photo's below.

We celebrated the Dutch King, Willem-Alexander's Birthday in Orange on Thursday, the 26th of April, as you would have noticed on the photo's. A great day !!!

64 Members on Thursday 26th of April.

Formally Known as Dutch Aged Care. (DACWA)

FAREWELL TO ANNE RIETVELD.

The Board and Staff of Dutch Aged Care WA Inc. (T/A CURA In-Home Care) recently held a small luncheon at their Welshpool Road premises.

The gathering was to acknowledge and to recognise the contributions made by Anne in her role as a Board Member, a former Treasurer and currently as Vice Chair. During her tenure of 10 years or more we have all seen and have experienced great change in the Aged Care Industry, Anne with her skills in management and accounting was a excellent source of support to the staff and to the other Members of the Board of Management.

Anne leaves us due to health reasons, we all wish her well and a speedy recovery in the next few months.

Henri Koldenhoven.

Board Chairman.

Profile of Board Member Marjorie Bly.

Marjorie was born in Rotterdam, the Netherlands, but has spent nearly all her life in Australia, now living in Perth.

After training as a primary school teacher, Marjorie's career path was interrupted by the birth and upbringing of her four Children who are now grown with Children of their own – 11 of them.

Instead of returning to teaching, Marjorie worked for Australia Post, the Department of Defence in Civilian and Military roles and is currently an Assistant Director at the National Archives of Australia where she leads the Perth reference team, providing reading room and remote reference assistance to researchers from all over Australia, and indeed the world.

As she approaches her senior years Marjorie has begun to reconnect with her Dutch heritage. She looks forward to being able to use some of her years of acquired experience to support CURA In-Home Care.

New website for CURA!

We are very excited to have our new website up and running.

Please have a look at www.curahomecare.org.au

You are welcome to share the good news!

Annegret.

Cura is now recruiting Volunteers for our Community Visitor Scheme.

Our volunteers visit elderly people either in their own homes or in residential aged care. They bring friendship and happiness to the people they visit and they receive the same in return.

When you are a CVS Volunteer, you receive an orientation, access to an online training program, three in-house training sessions per year and reimbursement for travel expenses.

It also is an opportunity to have a reference when applying for work.

If you are looking for a meaningful opportunity to volunteer an hour every fortnight, please phone us on 9382 1983 or email us at cvs@cura-inhomecare.org.au.

We would love to hear from you.

From home support to aged care homes: How to get started with My Aged Care

It's never too early to talk about getting some extra help. Knowing what services are available before you need them will help you be prepared to make decisions about your future.

What services are available?

Care at home

My Aged Care can help you access services at home which can improve your wellbeing and help you stay independent. Receiving help with regular activities at the right time can help you manage better at home.

You may be eligible to receive services such as:

- personal care like help with getting dressed
- transport
- modifications to your home like rails or ramps
- nursing, physiotherapy and other care
- meals
- household jobs like cleaning or gardening
- equipment like walking frames
- social activities.

Short-term help

My Aged Care can also help you access short-term care services for situations such as:

- recovery from an accident or illness, including after a hospital stay
- when you have had a setback and want to get your independence back
- when you or your carer needs a break (respite care).

Care in an aged care home

If you find you need ongoing help with day-to-day tasks or health care, a residential aged care home lets you live in a supported environment where help is available 24 hours a day.

Are you eligible for services?

A call to My Aged Care can help you understand:

- what services may be available
- how much they cost
- how you can access them.

My Aged Care may arrange a face-to-face assessment of your care needs.

Who pays for services?

The Australian Government contributes to the cost of aged care services. You are expected to contribute to the cost if you can afford to. How much you pay may depend on:

- your financial situation
- the number and types of services you receive
- the service provider.

My Aged Care

1800 200 422***

How to access services

1. Call My Aged Care on 1800 200 422*

- You will be asked questions over the phone to help work out your needs and care arrangements – this takes at least ten minutes.
- You will need your Medicare card.
- If you're calling for someone else, they will need to give their consent.

2. Have a face-to-face assessment

- My Aged Care may arrange for a trained assessor to come to your home.
- With your consent they will assess your care needs and eligibility for services and work with you to develop a support plan which addresses your needs, goals and preferences.
- Someone else can be with you during this visit.

3. Find out about costs

- My Aged Care and service providers can give you information about costs. You will be told if you need a financial assessment.

4. Choose services

- The service finder on the My Aged Care website can help you locate and compare some services in your area.
- Your assessor and My Aged Care can also help you find a service provider(s) in your local area that meets your needs.

My Aged Care

My Aged Care is the entry point to access aged care services and information about:

- the different types of aged care services available
- your eligibility for services
- referrals to service providers that can meet your needs
- your contribution to the cost of your aged care.

Upcoming Rhein-Donau Club Functions

Some useful information about the Rhein-Donau Club.

The Rhein-Donau Club was established 1958 and has been operational in Perth since 1959 at its present premises in Myaree.

The Club has been established with its prime objective to provide a facility for people from Germany, Austria, Switzerland, the Netherlands and other Europeans and residents from Western Australia, who enjoy the culture, music, culinary delights and customs of countries embraced by the two major rivers of Europe; namely Rhine and Danube.

The Rhein-Donau Club is a non-profit, non-denominational and non-political organisation and is operated by volunteers. All money raised are channelled to the maintenance and improvements of the Club's facilities, promotion of educational and cultural activities and assist in the care of aging Club Members.

Now you have a real choice with in-home care

Many people love the security and familiarity of living in their own home. Now the Federal Government allows you to choose the in-home care support service so you can continue to live an independent and active life.

As an accredited provider, we have nearly 30 years experience in providing an extensive range of in-home services for the elderly. We'll work with you – and your family – to see which of our services will be most beneficial to your circumstances.

You might need help with activities such as:

- shopping
- transport
- medical appointments
- cleaning
- personal care
- assistance with meal preparation
- or just having a chat with someone over a cuppa

Our clients come from many different ethnic backgrounds and a diverse variety of lifestyles – we provide culturally specific services and treat them all with the same degree of respect and dignity.

The first step to getting CURA's individual in-home care is to call and have a chat with a member of our Care Team.

If you are not eligible for Government funding, we can still assist you in planning for private services, no matter what your age.

Sunday Klaverjas Drive Report

The May Sunday Drive.

This event was held on Sunday the 6th of May. At first we were notified that it had to be held in the Edelweiss Hall.

However, after discussions with Deone in the Office, the issue was successfully sorted out and once again we were back in the Karl's Bar. Also during the last weeks we had received favourable feedback on us having Genuine Dutch Appeltaart with the morning Coffee, which was served at the April Sunday Drive. And it was decided, that when you are on a good thing, stick to it.

So once again, as soon as the first players started to arrive, they were treated with a cup of genuine Coffee and another slice of Dutch Appeltaart (Apple Pie).

Thanks Gerry for organising that.

When everyone finally got there, just before the starting time of 11 am, we discovered that we had 29 Klaverjas playing Members and 3 non-playing Members.

That made up 7 complete playing tables and Committee Member Piet Segers was to miss out.

However, Piet Leeftang and Piet Segers then decided to share one spot by playing two games each.

Non-playing Gerry and Thea meanwhile did the washing up, tidied things up and ordered our Lunch from the Kitchen.

An initiative, adopted by the Committee, is that 7 players, who are known to be accurate scorekeepers and who like to do it, were allocated a table number to guarantee that every table had a competent scorer. This prevents that there is a table of 4 players and no-one knows how to keep accurate scores.

Another initiative, which seem to work just as well, is that play will stop at 2.30 pm or soon after, at the option of the Games-Master.

This is mainly done to speed up the games and when the winners are announced, there are still a large number of players present.

On previous occasion, while waiting a long time for the very last table to finish, just about everyone had gone home already.

Lunch was served at 12.30 with another cup of good Coffee or Tea. The lunch once again was excellent and was appreciated by all.

The competition as usual, was fierce and fair.

One table unfortunately was not allowed to finish, but they were nowhere near the winners.

When the scorecards finally came in, they were checked (no mistakes could be found) and the three Prize-winners were announced.

These Prize winners were:

|   |                    |
|---|--------------------|
| 1st prize Thijs Gorter              | 7038 points |
| 2nd prize Piet Leeftang/Piet Segers | 6824 points |
| 3rd prize Barbera Penello           | 6767 points |

Our next Sunday Drive will be held on Sunday the 3rd of June. That happens to be a long weekend, Labour Day.

And it looks like a couple of our Committee Members/players will be missing, as they will be away on holidays, but it will be business as usual.

The Sunday Drive in July will be held on Sunday the 1st of July.

Hope to see you all there.

Pieter L.

The Prize Winners (l.t.r.): Piet Segers and Piet Leeftang shared the 2nd Prize; Barbera Penello got the 3rd prize; and Thijs Gorter got the 1st Prize for the highest score.

MAN OF THE HOUSE.

The husband had just finished reading a book entitled: "You Can Be The Man of Your House". He stormed to his wife in the kitchen and announced: "From now on, you need to know that I am the man of this house and my word is Law. You will prepare me a gourmet meal tonight and when I'm finished eating my meal, you will serve me a sumptuous dessert. After dinner you are going to go upstairs with me and I will have what I want. Afterwards, you are going to draw me a bath, so I can relax. You will wash my back and towel me dry and bring me my robe. Then, you will massage my feet and hands and fluff my pillows and make me comfortable for a good night's sleep. Then tomorrow morning, guess who's going to dress me and comb my hair?" The wife dryly replied: "The funeral director would be my first guess."

A GOOD CATHOLIC.

An elderly Italian man, who lived on the outskirts of Monte Cassino, saw the local priest for confession. When the priest slid open the panel on the confession Box, the man said: "Father .. during World War 11, a beautiful woman knocked on my door and asked me to hide her from the enemy. So I hid her in my attic." The priest replied: "That was a wonderful thing you did! You have no need to confess that." "It's worse than that, Father. She started to repay me with sexual favours." The priest said: "By doing that, you were both in great danger. However, two people under those circumstances can be very tempted to act that way. But if you are truly sorry for your actions, you are indeed forgiven." "Thank you, Father. That's a great load off my mind. But I do have one more question." "And what is that?" asked the priest. "Should I tell her that the war is over?"

ELEMENTARY BIBLE SCHOOL TESTS.

This comes from a Catholic elementary school test. Kids were asked questions about the Old and New Testaments. Children wrote the following statements about the Bible. The answers have not been retouched nor corrected.

1. In the first book of the Bible, Guinness, God got tired of creating the world so he took the Sabbath off.
2. Adam and Eve were created from an apple tree.
3. Lot's wife was a pillar of salt during the day, but a ball of fire during the night.
4. Noah's wife was Joan of Ark. Noah built an Ark and the animals came on in pairs.

5. Sampson was a strongman, who let himself be led astray by a jezebel like Delilah.
6. Samson slayed the Philistines with the axe of the Apostles.
7. Moses led the Jews to the Red Sea, where they made unleavened bread, which is bread without any ingredients.
8. The Egyptians were all drowned in the desert. Afterwards, Moses went up to Mount Sinai to get the Ten Commandments.
9. The first commandment was when Eve told Adam to eat the apple.
10. The seventh commandment is thou shalt not admit adultery.
11. Moses died before he ever reached Canada. Then Joshua led the Hebrews in the battle of Jericho.
12. The greatest miracle in the Bible is when Joshua told his son to stand still and he obeyed him.
13. David was a Hebrew king who was skilled at playing the lute. He fought the Finkelsteins, a race of people who lived in biblical times.
14. Solomon, one of David's sons, had 300 wives and 700 porcupines.
15. When Mary heard she was the mother of Jesus, she sang the Magna Carta.
16. When the three wise guys from the east side arrived they found Jesus in the manger.
17. Jesus was born because Mary had an immaculate conception.
18. St. John the blacksmith dumped water on his head.
19. Jesus enunciated the golden rule, which says to do unto others before they do one to you. He also explained a man doth not live by sweat alone.
20. It was a miracle when Jesus rose from the dead and managed to get the tombstone off the entrance.
21. The people who followed the Lord were called the 12 disciples.
22. The epistles were the wives of the apostles.
23. One of the opossums was St. Matthew, who was also a taximan.
24. St. Paul cavorted to Christianity; he preached holy acrimony, which is another name for marriage.
25. Christians have only one spouse. This is called monotony.

IRISH OBITUARY.

Gallagher opened the morning newspaper and was dumbfounded to read in the obituary column that he had died.

He quickly phoned his best friend, Finney.

"Did you see the paper?" asked Gallagher. "They say I died!!"

"Yes, I saw it!" replied Finney.

"Where are ye callin' from?"

The Vestingstad (Fortified City) of Naarden

Naarden is a City and former Municipality in the Gooi region in the province of North Holland, the Netherlands. It has been part of the new Municipality of “Gooise Meren” since 2016.

Naarden was granted its City rights in 1300.

Flag and Coat of Arms of Naarden.

History.

In the 9th Century AD, at the time of the Vikings, a small Town of Fishermen and Traders, called Naarden was first mentioned in documents. But it was not situated on the present location, as the original Naarden was swallowed by the sea.

During the 13th and 14th Centuries, a couple of monstrous storms swept over Holland. Hundreds of thousands acres of land were washed away, and a giant inland sea was created; the Southern Sea (Zuiderzee). The Town was abandoned and “given to the sea” in the year 1350.

Surprisingly swiftly, the refugees created a complete new Town, a couple of miles inland on higher ground. It rapidly became the regional Capital and a prosperous merchant Town and Centre of the booming textile industry.

Being of strategic importance, Naarden suffered more destruction and misery. In the beginning of the Dutch Eighty-Years-War of independence in 1572, when an invading Spanish army on a punitive expedition, burned it to the ground and massacred most citizens, Women and Children included.

A few years later the Town was build up once again and gradually surrounded by an elaborate defence system to protect the eastern flank of Amsterdam. Today Naarden is one of the best preserved fortified towns in Europe, with its typical star shaped form, a spectacular sight from the air and on a satellite picture.

Attractions.

Naarden is the home of the Netherlands Fortress Museum (Nederlands Vestingmuseum).

Naarden hosts the bi-annual Naarden Photo Festival.

The Great Church (Grote Kerk) or St. Vitus Church is situated on the Markstraat and dates from the 15th century. Prior to the Protestant Reformation it was named the St. Vitus Church. It is one of the oldest surviving Churches in The Netherlands, having had the good fortune to survive the Spanish invasion of 1572 and the subsequent burning of the Town. The Church has numerous wooden vaults that are painted with scenes from the Old and New Testaments. These were hidden for many years and were only rediscovered in a recent restoration. The Church is the venue for a number of cultural activities such as organ music nights and the bi-annual Naarden Photo festival.

Villas in the Naardenbos showing various styles of reed-covered roofs.

Naarderbos is a recreational area in the Gooi region. It is situated on the shores of the Gooimeer (lake) and is part of the City of Naarden. It consists partly of woodland and meadows and has a closed Villa Community, also referred to as "Naarderwoonbos". This community consists of approx. 180 villas, which each having its own boat pier as well as a public 18 hole golf course.

The Naarderbos is a forest that was planted in 1980. It consists mostly of oak, chestnut and beech-wood trees and it has many pathways for walking, as well as picnic areas.

The Naarderbos is about 20 km southeast of Amsterdam. Naarderbos also has a wild variety of animals. There is a family of storks that live there and visit during the summer.

The Spanish House (Spaanse Huis), situated at Turfpoortstraat 27, was originally a Church building, which was converted to house migrants. In 1572 Spanish troops conducted a massacre of some 700 inhabitants, who had gathered to hear a peace proposal. The Spanish fired on the assembled Citizens and went on to set fire to the Town. A plaque above the lintel of the door and below the eaves commemorates the massacre.

In 1615, after the population had re-established itself and they built the City Hall on the site. Part of the building was given over to De Waag (The Scales House), the Municipal Office entrusted with the verification of weights and measures.

The building later served a French garrison as a bakery, turning out over 1000 loaves per day. From 1967 until 1992 it served as the Comenius Museum. Today, the historic building serves as the Weegschaal Museum.

CODEBREAKER PUZZLE

A Codebreaker is a crossword puzzle with no clues! Every letter of the alphabet has been replaced by a number.

For this puzzle the first two letters are revealed. Start with entering these letters throughout the puzzle and then start guessing your first word or letter. Use a pencil to start, then if it does not work out, you can erase it and start again.

Some letters, e.g. the letters E and A and S occur more often than others e.g. the letter Z.

The last Codebreaker was not too hard. The words: Electric, Exotic and Ooze were easy.

Once there you were on your way to solve it. The letter codes for last month's Codebreaker was as follows:

A=19; B=21; C=8; D=10; E=13; F=2; G=18; H=4; I=14; J=24; K=12; L=15; M=7; N=26; O=16; P=1; Q=25; R=9; S=5; T=3; U=17; V=22; W=20; X=6; Y=11; Z=23.
